

KNOWLEDGE TRANSFER WORKSHOP

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 2019

8AM TO NOON

LOCATION: CENTER FOR INNOVATIVE FOOD TECHNOLOGY (CIFT)
5555 AIRPORT HIGHWAY, TOLEDO, OH

Organizations have long recognized that the knowledge and experience of employees constitutes a valuable, intangible asset. Learn how to implement formal and informal knowledge sharing activities that help your company identify critical at-risk knowledge and expertise.

In this interactive workshop, participants will use activities and how-to exercises while learning:

- The six-step knowledge transfer process
- How to foster a learning climate in their organizations where everyone feels welcome to share their expertise and their knowledge

This workshop will be of special interest to:

- Upper-Level Managers
- Supervisors
- Human Resources Professionals

We recommend at least two participants from each organization attend to gain the most benefit and successful launch of the Knowledge Transfer Took Kit used in this training.

The Presenter:

Diane Thielholdt

Learning Strategist and Co-Founder, The Learning Café
Diane partners with clients to create custom learning solutions that produce business results and support personal growth. She specializes in designing, developing and facilitating training on the changing workforce, knowledge transfer, leadership and mentoring.

Prior to launching The Learning Café, her career encompassed leadership roles with McGraw-Hill, TRW, Bausch & Lomb and Xerox in sales, marketing, communications and the design, development and delivery of learning programs.

Registration Information

It is strongly recommended that each attending organization send at least 2 employees. 1 of those employees with decision making authority.

Cost to attend is $400 per company for any sized group.

West Central Ohio Manufacturing Association (WCOMC) members receive a discounted rate of $360. If you have interest in membership, please inquire.
