I'm sending you this postcard to ask for your vote for the best District 9 school board candidate: Carol Tempel. Carol has always put students first, as an educator and community advocate. Please vote for Carol on November 8. DeAnna M

Three of my grandchildren live in Charleston and attend public schools so it's extra important to me that our school board has members who have experience in education and community service. Carol Tempel has been in the trenches for decades working tirelessly to make Charleston schools better. I have no doubt she will continue to do so in order that all students in the district get a high-quality public education. Leslie Armstrong

It's almost election day! We get to choose the best person for District 9 School Board! After you research Carol Tempel, I know you will see she is the perfect candidate. She is a longtime educator and community advocate. Please join me and vote for Carol. DeAnna M.

Carol Tempel would be an excellent and exceptional addition to the Charleston County school board. She is a former educator, principal and administrator. She has always been involved, engaged and is sincerely concerned about all children receiving a quality education. Carol is an avid advocate of public schools and can offer valuable perspectives both as a retired educator and parent. I know her well as a friend, fighter for equality and justice in public education, dedicated ad engaged citizen and great human being. I fully endorse her. Sheryl Sann Mack

Dr. Tempel is uniquely qualified professionally and personally for our school board. She has been a passionate leader not only in education, but active in community services for decades. I know her...and I am grateful and amazed at her heart and energy for excellence. Paula H.

Dear Voter, I'm excited to vote for Carol for School Board. I support her ideas and can't wait until she can share her knowledge with everyone. I hope you will vote for her too. Joyce B.

I support Dr. Carol Tempel for the CCSD school board. I believe she will fight to give our children a quality public education, in my opinion...without pushing the privatization agenda, without restricting historical facts, without banning books, without denying science, and who will not accept "minimally adequate" as the standard for our children. Pastor Thomas Dixon

My friend Carol Tempel is the most passionate person I know when it comes to quality public education for all. She is also the most qualified of all the candidates. Please vote for Carol on November 8. Thank you. Pat G.

Please vote for Carol—a lifelong education and mentor for public education. School Board election is at the bottom of the ballot and must be voted separately from straight ticket. Melinda H.

We support Carol and ask you to do likewise. She has the skills and experience to do a good job and the integrity to do it well. Ann Woodfield and Ralph Wood.

Please vote for Carol for Charleston County School District. Carol is an educator who has devoted her life to our public schools. She believes every child deserves the best education & every faculty member matters. Thank you. Melinda H

I happily endorse Carol Tempel for District 9 Charleston County Consolidated School Board! She has experiences in all levels of the school system inside/out. Carol is an advocate and a fighter for all educational needs and growth. Let's get to work and get out the vote on November 8.

Millicent Traeye

Thank you @Carol Tempel for being a candidate for Charleston County School Board. Your years of experience as an educator in public schools counts. Your leadership matters. Melinda H

How anyone could post or make a negative ad against Carol Tempel is beyond me. I have worked with Carol and followed her career and passion for education for 25 years. She would bring a vital experience and a wealth of knowledge and resources to this position. She also has people and managing skills which are so important in collaborative work such as a school board.

Lisa Whitlatch Hodierna

Carol is the only one on the June ballot with depth in science, small business, and education. Carol's commitment to improving public education makes her the best choice for District 9.

Nancy Moore

To have a school board member of Carol Tempel's integrity, brains and work ethic would be a dream. We can make it a reality! Please support her in every way possible. Linda Ketner

If you believe in public education, vote for Carol Tempel, District 9. Your vote matters. Mary Joan Oexman
