Attending the Annual Conference also provides many additional benefits such as the chance to network with hundreds of practicing social workers across the state, a central location to find employment, and a chance to learn about the wide variety of areas in which social workers practice.

*Student Group Volunteer Discount Program:

To help make the conference more affordable and meet the need for volunteers, NASW-WI has created a student group volunteer discount program. Please read the requirements below.

1. A group of 5 or more students.
2. All members of the group must attend in person.
3. Everyone must attend all three days.
4. Registration must be completed by October 1st, 2025.
5. The group must be accompanied by an advisor.
6. Everyone must be willing to be a session monitor.

Volunteers will introduce the presenters, read announcements, pass the microphone, monitor the chat and support the IT team. You will need to attend a one-hour training session. The date will be determined as we get closer to the conference. All efforts will be made to place you in your preferred sessions.

For a specially created group registration form or group discount code please email admin.naswwi@socialworkers.org We hope to see you there!
