EOC State Testing for Biology, Algebra 1, US History, and English 2	Finals for other courses
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ALL scholars taking a class with a state-mandated End of Course must come onto campus for the test per SCDE. These courses include Biology, Algebra 1, US History, and English 2. A, B and D day scholars must come in on the 9th, 16th and/or 18th if they have an EOC exam per the schedule above Chromebooks must be fully charged for EOC testing. EOC assessments must be administered to every student enrolled in a designated EOCEP course, as required by federal accountability requirements and according to state administration guidelines. A teacher-made final exam for all EOC courses will also be administered to all students enrolled in these courses. Teachers will apply the higher of the two grades earned on the EOCEP exam or the teacher-made final exam as the 20 percent course grade exam requirement for all EOCEP courses. 	Finals for other courses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Finals for scholars may include teacher created exams, projects, or papers. Final exams will be open book and scholars will participate from the location they are scheduled to be located in for that day. HS scholars do not come to school on Dec 16 or 18 unless they are taking an EOC exam. On Tuesday, December 15, A day scholars will also be on campus, we will follow a regular bell schedule with blocks 1 and 3 having exams. B day scholars come to school on Thursday Dec.17. We will follow a regular bell schedule with blocks 2 and 4 having exams. Scholars should bring chromebooks fully charged to school each day.
