

SCHOLARSHIPS

Available

Burt W. & Virginia Polin Farm Bureau Scholarship

DUE: February 6, 2023

The Burt W. and Virginia Polin "Farm Bureau" Scholarship was established to encourage one or more local students pursuing a career in agriculture. This scholarship honors the legacy of Burt and Virginia Polin. Burt Polin was born in San Luis Obispo in 1914 and died in San Luis Obispo in 2006 after being married to his wife, Virginia, for nearly 70 years. He was a dry land wheat rancher for more than 40 years on land on the Carrizo Plains inherited from his grandfather. The Polins were very active in the community. Open to graduating seniors from a San Luis Obispo County high school planning to pursue a degree in the field of agriculture at an approved community college or four-year university.

Farm Bureau Women Scholarship

DUE: March 31, 2023

The San Luis Obispo County Farm Bureau Women is an active committee that has a historic past. It is the only Farm Bureau Women group remaining in the California Farm Bureau structure. We are so proud of the work they have done to support agriculture and the future of agriculture. Each year the Farm Bureau Women Committee offers scholarships to several deserving students of $1000 each.

California Farm Bureau Scholarship

DUE: February 1, 2023

A collegiate membership is required for the California Farm Bureau Scholarship Foundation was organized to give aid to students with a desire to pursue a career in the agricultural industry. The scholarships are awarded annually based upon academic achievement, career goals, extracurricular activities, determination, leadership skills, and a commitment to study agriculture.

SLO County Foundation for Agricultural Awareness & California Mid-State Fair Scholarship

DUE: April 7, 2023

This scholarship is for students that have participated in the California Mid-State Fair within the past 3 years. To qualify, applicants must be attending or planning to attend a University, College, Professional, or Vocational school as a full-time student and have a purposeful educational goal.

