Join the California Chapter, ASFMRA for this three-hour webinar focusing on California water challenges and the impact on agriculture in the Golden State. California Farm Bureau Federation Legal Services Division Senior Counsel, Chris Scheuring and Kari Fisher will share their expertise the following topics:

- California's Hydrology and Water System
- Principles of California Water Law
- Current Issues with Respect to Surface Water
- SGMA and the Future of Groundwater
- Water Quality regulations for irrigated lands (East San Joaquin Waste Discharge Requirements and Central Coast RWQCB's Ag Order 4.0)
- PFAS Contamination
- Update on Waters of the United States (if available)

The final hour will shift to land values and the effects of the challenging water situation. Tiffany Holmes, ARA with Edwards, Lien & Toso, Inc. will discuss the increase in values in the Northern/Central San Joaquin Valley areas and Mike Ming, ARA with Alliance Ag Services will be covering Kern and Tulare Counties and the effects on White Land and under watered Water District Lands. Following each segment, there will be time for questions.
