SAVE THE DATE!! Tickets for "Atascadero's Dancing with Our Stars" will be on sale January 14th online only at: www.AtascaderoDWOS.org. Tickets will be $85 per person and include Opolo wine, Central Coast Brewing beer, a silent auction, Pacific Harvest catered buffet dinner and the most stellar show of the year! The 2019 show theme is "Atascadero Time Machine: Back to the 80's" professionally scripted and directed by Molly Comin. The event will showcase fabulous dance routines, costumes, vocals and theatics. Due to the popularity of this highly acclaimed community event, Friends of the Atascadero Library are hosting the dinner show three nights: March 21, March 22 and March 23, 2019 at the Atascadero Pavilion on the Lake. Special thanks to Leigh Livick for managing the Friends of Atascadero Library website and Eventbrite ticket sales!

Friends of the Atascadero Library Board approved the participating non-profits and their community star dancers: Atascadero AAUW (Susan Funk), Atascadero Greyhound Foundation (Tom Butler), Atascadero Kiwanis (Jan Lynch), Atascadero Printery Foundation (Karen McNamara), El Camino Homeless Organization (Steffi Saul-Ketzler) and Paso Robles Youth Arts Foundation (Nancy Beckett). Community Star Dancers Terrie Banish and Heather Moreno will represent Friends of the Atascadero Library to raise funds for ongoing technology needs and new furnishings in the children's area. You may vote early and often for these dancers on our dedicated DWOS website: www.AtascaderoDWOS.org

Professional Choreographers for 2018 are: Molly Comin, Kara Frenzel, Chris Harmon, Justin McMillan, Frank Sanchez, Laura Slania, Christina Troxel and Rod Ware. Several past community stars and professional dancers will be performing throughout the show in vignettes to round out the all-star cast. Vignettes will be choreographed by Show Director Molly Comin and Frank Sanchez.

This event wouldn't be a success without our dedicated sponsors! Opolo Vineyards is supplying their fabulous wines for every dinner show. Central Coast Brewing is supplying their top-notch beer each evening. Show host entertainers will be Paso Robles Mayor Steve Martin and new addition- Professional Musician/Comedian Joel Mason from Las Vegas. Brenda May and Jeanne Neely will collaborate with Director Molly on the vignette costumes. Brian Reeves will continue as the professional music editor. Brian's wife Joy Bonner will DJ the event. John Webster will be stage manager. Bill Gaines Audio will provide professional lighting and Scott Sebby will operate the lighting system with technical design by Ryan Flores. Cheryl Strahl will support the event as professional photographer and Christina Bearce will continue her long history of support as professional videographer. You may order a DVD at the event for $20. This teamwork and wonderful collaboration of efforts is sure to result in another fabulous show!

If you're interested in donating a silent auction item, please email Silent Auction Chair Linda Zirk: Linda.folatascadero@yahoo.com. Linda and her dedicated team will host a silent auction on each event night. Every business donating an item will be advertised in the silent auction as and also in the event program pending receiving the donation by February 20th. The donations of items from our generous community and beyond has been nothing short of amazing.

Special thanks to Atascadero News for publishing a series of interesting "Dancing with Our Stars" articles, written by Grenda Ernst. The articles will spotlight the 2019 Community Star dancers and choreographers. The series will begin in late November and continue through February. If you're not a current subscriber, call Beth Bolyard at the Atascadero News at (805) 466-2585 and sign up today for this informative, affordable newspaper delivered to your mailbox every Friday!

Atascadero's Dancing with Our Stars is a top-notch event that will be the talk of the town for years to come. If you're interested in sponsoring this event and desire premium seating and mega advertising, please contact me by December 15th: jeannie@gregmalikregroup.com
