

FREEDOM SCHOOL LECTURE SERIES

THIS IS AMERICA

HIP-HOP AND THE BLACK LIVES
MATTER MOVEMENT

7:15 PM WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10

In collaboration with Georgia State University's (GSU) African American Studies Department, the Auburn Avenue Research Library will host Freedom School, a series of virtual lectures facilitated by GSU faculty dedicated to presenting premier Africana academic scholarship and research in an accessible public forum.

Dr. Lakeyta Bonnette-Bailey, will examine the inextricable relationship between Hip Hop culture and the Black Lives Matter Movement in combating systemic injustices that plague Black America.

Dr. Lakeyta Bonnette-Bailey is an Associate Professor of Political Science at Georgia State University. Dr. Bonnette-Bailey's research interests include Hip Hop culture, political behavior, political attitudes, African-American politics, political psychology, and public opinion. Her current research examines the impact of political rap music on racial attitudes and the relationship between Hip-Hop culture and social justice- a co-edited volume (with Adolphus Belk Jr).
