AFRICAN-AMERICAN MUSEUMS AS NEIGHBORHOOD CULTURAL CENTERS

7:00 PM FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11

The Auburn Ave Research Library, Refuge Coffee and Read 4 Unity present our winter mini-talk on "African-American Museums as Neighborhood Cultural Centers", featuring APEX Museum's founder, Dan Moore, Sr.

The APEX Museum is the oldest Black History Museum located in the city of Atlanta. It was founded in 1978 by Dan Moore Sr., a veteran filmmaker, who was inspired by the life of Dr. Benjamin Mays. During this event, you will hear from Mr. Moore as he takes us through the journey of APEX museum, its challenges along the way, and its hope and dreams for the future.
