

FREEDOM SCHOOL LECTURE SERIES

ADVOCATING FOR BLACK CHILDREN WITHIN EDUCATION CONTEXTS

7:15 PM WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17

In collaboration with Georgia State University's (GSU) African American Studies Department, the Auburn Avenue Research Library will host Freedom School, a series of virtual lectures facilitated by GSU faculty dedicated to presenting premier Africana academic scholarship and research in an accessible public forum.

This discussion will focus on education reform that centers the lived experiences of Black children and families; meaningfully include Black voices, and have equity and Black student success at its core.

Discussants include Bridgette Davis, Dr. Dorian Harrison, Tamara N. Moten, Dr. Erin Berry-McCrea, and Dr. Reanae McNeal with Dr. Tiffany Flowers serving as moderator.
