

FREEDOM SCHOOL LECTURE SERIES

RACE, POLICING AND DISABILITY

7:15 PM WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3

In collaboration with Georgia State University's (GSU) African American Studies Department and the Faculty of the African Diaspora (FADA) Organization, the Auburn Avenue Research Library will host Freedom School, a series of virtual lectures, facilitated by GSU faculty, dedicated to presenting premier Africana academic scholarship and research in an accessible public forum.

Dr. Desmond Goss, professor of Sociology at Georgia State University and Ashley Salmon, Research Coordinator, at the Center for Leadership in Disability at Georgia State University will explore how disability intersects with other factors, such as race, class, gender, and sexuality, to magnify degrees of marginalization and increase the risk of state-sanctioned violence.
