

AUTHOR BOOK DISCUSSION

A SON WITH NO FATHER A BOOK WITH NO AUTHOR

A CONVERSATION WITH MARIO REYES

7:00 PM THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25

The Auburn Avenue Research Library will host poet and author Mario Reyes, who will discuss his latest publication, A Son with No Father is A Book with No Author.

A Son with No Father is A Book with No Author, Mario's first contribution to the world of literacy, is no small feat. Intentionally designed not to be an average poetry coffee table book, he created a resource for single parents to use as a soundboard for their journey in parenthood. Rich in vulnerability, this book is a hybrid merging short stories, self-help, and poetry, framing the world at large to this human becoming.
