NAVIGATING THE NEW AARL WEBSITE

7:00 PM TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17

The Auburn Avenue Research Library will host a series of instructional classes, facilitated by AARL's Reference and Research staff. These instructional workshops support the ongoing development of foundational computer and information literacy, and research skills, while promoting the library resources and fostering culturally relevant lifelong learning.

Patrons will gain an understanding of the basic architecture and site navigation of the AARL's renovated webpage, identifying new features and resources.
