

BHS Playmakers encounter bizarre plants and ambition in the rollicking Little Shop of Horrors

The Ballard High School Playmakers are preparing to stage the fun, sci-fi, comedy musical Little Shop of Horrors. The popular musical follows the tale of Seymour Krelbourn, a meek flower-shop assistant.

Seymour discovers a strange plant that he affectionately names "Audrey II" after his crush at the shop. But this plant is like no other: it sings it swears, and it thirsts for human blood! As the carnivorous plant grows bigger and more aggressive, it promises Seymour fame and fortune if he continues to provide fresh supplies of blood. What will Seymour do with this unusual species?

The cast features 32 BHS students, and the play is directed by BHS Theatre Director Shawn M. Riley.

Performance Details

The performances will be on March 14, 15, 16, 21, 22, 23 at the Earl Kelly Center for Performing Arts at Ballard High School, 1418 NW 65th Street, Seattle, Washington, 98117. The performances begin at 7:30 pm.

Tickets

Reserved seating tickets for Little Shop of Horrors are available for purchase at <https://showtix4u.com>. Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for students/seniors.

