Insurance card must be presented to clinic staff

Those who are not covered by an insurance that U of M accepts may pay the self-pay discounted rate of $45.20 for the regular flu shot or $71.20 for high dose flu vaccine by check or credit card.

If your insurance plan does not cover our services, your insurer will deny payment and payment will become your responsibility. The above noted prices include a self-pay discount of 60%. If you receive a bill, the self-pay discount will not be automatically applied. Call the number on your bill and request a self-pay discount. We recommend you be familiar with and verify your benefits with your insurance company prior to receiving our services. Please be aware that we can never guarantee that your insurer will cover the services you've received.
