

Update on the New Community Chorus

Jennifer Carpenter, Director of Music

Please note a slight change in the rehearsal schedule (a change from last week's Steeple article):

We encourage people interested in the new Community Chorus to attend the Wednesday Love and Justice Vigils from 5:15 to 5:45 p.m. outside the front entrance of FUUSB. We will then begin rehearsal at 5:45 p.m. in the Parlors for the Chorus. That is a change, as in the original article last week we said we'd rehearse from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Who may join: All are welcome, children and adults alike! We will sing music along the lines of what a group of Freedom Singers would sing, such as peace and protest songs (i.e. This Land is Your Land, I've Got Peace Like a River). No experience nor audition required. You do not need to read music. Guitars and hand percussion welcome as well!

First rehearsal: Wednesday, November 1 from 5:45 to 6:45 p.m. in the Parlors.

Rehearsal schedule: Monthly - The first Wednesday of the month from November to May from 5:45 to 6:45 p.m.

Sunday service schedule: Monthly - Every first Sunday of the month from November to May for the 11 a.m. service (second service). Call time is 10:15 a.m. for the Chorus in the Sanctuary.

Note: For the first rehearsal we ask that all children under age 18 be accompanied by a parent or guardian for the full rehearsal, as we will have a brief meeting in the last 15 minutes of rehearsal to discuss a chaperoning plan that mutually works for all involved, in order to ensure that there's enough adult supervision in the room.
