First UU Society of Burlington, Vermont

Anti Racism BINGO Card

from the Racial Justice Team

1. Read or watched about Black Joy	2. Unpacked Whiteness as a privileged racial identity	3. Contacted my elected officials for change in city or state policy	4. Explored the origins of the 8th Principle of UUism	5. Heard or discussed work of author Ta-nehisi Coates
6. Watched a movie with a BIPOC director and actors	7. Reflected on when I first knew my own racial identity	8. Visited the Richard Kemp Center to attend an event or meeting	9. Reviewed the R.J.T. resources at FUUSB website	10. Learned about UU views on reparations + restorative justice
11. Explained to a friend the work of the RKC, VRJA, or RJT.	12. Attended an event for Rev. Dr. MLK, Jr. Day or Black History Month	FREE -dom and justice for all SPACE	13. Discussed my vision of Beloved Community	14. Took solidarity action at BlackLives Matter.com
15. Considered some white people's ambivalence toward diversity policy	16. Watched a video or read a book about antiracism	17. Joined a protest for racial justice	18. Listened to VPR podcast: "Homegoings"	19. Joined a book group or read a book by a BIPOC author
20. Participated in The Race Card Project	21. Learned about BLUU or UU Palestine Action	22. Discussed White Fragility with a white friend	23. Read a work by Rev. Dr. Sofía Betancourt	24. Supported a business owner of color or antiracist nonprofit

_____
Your Name (optional)

☐ Check if you are willing to share your BINGO card with others. The RJT would like to share them

* See notes on reverse side.

How to Use this Card:

* Check or X the box after you complete an activity.
* All returned cards with at least one completed box are eligible for our raffle.
* You may color this card if you wish.

First UU Society of Burlington (VT) Engages Race in 2025 Love "is a time for action." - MLK, Jr.

Events, Activities, & Resources for Your Bingo Card Game

1. Read or watched a video about Black Joy
   Resource: https://aframe.oscars.org/news/post/black-history-month-films-that-bring-joy-into-our-lives
2. Unpacked whiteness as a privileged racial identity
   Event: Mar 2, at FUUSB: "White Privilege: Unpacking the Invisible Knapsack," by Peggy McIntosh
3. Contacted my elected officials to advocate for racial justice change in city or state
4. Explored the origins of the 8th Principle of UUism www.8thPrincipleUU.org
5. Heard or discussed Black author Ta-nehisi Coates
   Event: Feb. 22: BX'25 The Black Experience: Ta-Nehisi Coates at Flynn Theater. Tickets required.
   Event: May 18: Discussion, Ta-Nehisi Coates' "The Case For Reparations," The Atlantic, at FUUSB
6. Watched a movie with a BIPOC director and actors
7. Reflected on when I first knew my own racial identity
   Event: Mar 23: Poetry reading by congregant Tricia Knoll from her book, How I Learned To Be White. Followed by discussion. In person at FUUSB and live-streamed.
8. Visited the Richard Kemp Center to attend an event or meeting
   Events: Feb 20: Partner Meeting at Richard Kemp Center. 6-8 pm, with VRJA
   Feb 21: Game Night at the Richard Kemp Center 6-8 pm
   (Every Tuesday): Chess Club at the Richard Kemp Center, 6-8 pm
9. Reviewed RJT resources on FUUSB website
   Racial Justice Team: uusociety.org/racial-justice-team/
10. Learned about UU views on reparations and restorative justice
    https://www.uua.org/action/statements/anti-racism-and-reparations-restorative-justice
11. Explained to a friend the work of the Richard Kemp Center, VRJA, or Racial Justice Team
    https://RichardKempCenter.org/
    Partner: VRJA - www.VtRacialJusticeAlliance.org
12. Attended an event for Rev. Dr. MLK, Jr. Day or Black History Month
    Event: Jan 20: Martin Luther King Day Gospel Concert "Just Love" 3-5 pm at FUUSB
13. Discussed my vision of Beloved Community
    Event: Jan 21: Beloved Community: Radical Empathy at Saint Michael's College.
14. Took solidarity action via BlackLivesMatter.com See: BlackLivesMatter.com/toolkits
15. Considered white people's ambivalence toward diversity policies
    Event: April 17, Play Reading, "Admissions" by Joshua Harmon, 7 pm. At FUUSB and live-streamed.
16. Watched a video or read a book about antiracism
    Suggestions from the Racial Justice Team: http://bit.ly/40Zf4Uu
17. Joined a protest for racial justice
    *Events: Wednesdays, 5:15 pm, in front of the FUUSB building on Pearl St.
    Resource: MigrantJustice.net/get-involved/
18. Listened to VPR podcast "Homegoings" https://www.VermontPublic.org/homegoings
19. Joined book group or read book by BIPOC author
    *Event: At FUUSB. Book group on Ijeoma Oluo's So You Want to Talk About Race, mid-April, TBD
20. Participated in The Race Card Project TheRaceCardProject.com
21. Learned about BLUU or UU Palestine Action BlackLivesUU.org and https://UUPalestineAction.org/
22. Discussed white fragility with a white friend
23. Read a work by Rev. Dr. Sofia Betancourt, UUA President
    Resource: https://SofiaBetancourt.com/about/sermons-talks-writings/
24. Supported a business owner of color or an antiracist nonprofit organization

* Resource: 2025 Racial Justice Team events calendar: bit.ly/42dVYLh
* Questions? Ask the Racial Justice Team by email: racialjustice@uusociety.org
* "Extra credit" activity (optional): You can put a square beside the activities that you can do on your own, a triangle beside those that you can do with others, and a circle next to those activities that make an impact beyond FUUSB.
* Question (optional): Conversations about race can be uncomfortable. What might you do "to get comfortable being uncomfortable"?
Your answer here: