INTRODUCTION

On this day, the church gathers to hear the proclamation of the The Passion, to pray for the life of the world, and to meditate on the life-giving cross. The ancient title for this day – The Triumph of the Cross – reminds us that the church gathers to offer thanksgiving for the sacrifice Christ made for each of us.

The Good Friday service does not come to a close. There is no conclusion, for the story is not yet finished. The narrative may pause for a while as we ponder the events on Golgotha, but there is more to be told. This day yields to the dread silence of that Great Sabbath, Holy Saturday, a day of anticipation, of waiting for God to act and fulfill his promise. Good Friday finds its conclusion on Easter morning, with the proclamation, “Jesus is Risen!”
