

LSC-HOUSTON NORTH

PANTHER DELEGATE

WHO WE ARE:

The Office of Student Life is presently accepting applications from eligible candidates for the Panther Delegate Program. Panther Delegates serve as crucial representatives of student perspectives at Lone Star College-Houston North.

WHAT WE DO:

Panther Delegates will be present to aid the Houston North community and potential students through campus tours, information dissemination regarding ongoing programs, operations, and resources that are accessible, as well as support a variety of other campus student engagement initiatives.

WHO WE ARE SEEKING:

Are you a current student at LSC-Houston North who is enthusiastic about your community and desires to have a positive impact while pursuing your degree? Do you possess robust leadership abilities and have a fervent dedication to supporting students in achieving success? If you responded enthusiastically to these questions, we encourage you to apply to become a Panther Delegate at LSC-Houston North.

ADVANTAGES OF BECOMING A PANTHER DELEGATE:

- Improve your communication and leadership abilities.
- Act as a representative of Lone Star College-Houston North at a variety of campus activities, including those hosted by the Office Student Life and RSO groups, the executive leadership team, and the Lone Star College System Office.
- Strengthen your professional resume.
- Earn additional income while you're attending school.
