

Casey Clickner

Upon earning his broker's license in 1986, Casey began his career with Shorewest and sold residential and commercial properties with them through 1990. He then sold new construction through a Minneapolis Firm from 1990-1992. From 1992-1994 Casey sold and trained salespeople for a national home improvement company. In July of 1994 he returned home to Shorewest as their Corporate Training Director and was soon appointed as Director of the Education Division overseeing the licensing school and all corporate training. In 2006 Casey was promoted to Director of Growth and Development, was given the title of Vice-President and currently serves on the Shorewest Executive Team.

As a young Captain and Company Commander in the Army Reserves, Casey feels his past experiences of basic training, ROTC, and leading a company in an engineer battalion, prepared him well for the future service and leadership opportunities he has embraced.

Casey has served on the WRA's Board of Directors and Agency Law Advisory Board and currently serves on WRA's Legal Action Committee. He also serves on GMAR's Equal Opportunity Committee, Addendum A advisory group and on the Wisconsin DSPS, Forms Advisory Committee. Casey is a past recipient of GMAR's Dedicated Service Award and the Wisconsin Fair Housing Network Volunteer Award.

Casey and his wife Debbie are longtime residents of Franklin, WI. When not working, they enjoy time spent with their two sons, daughter-in-law and grandson hanging out and going on family getaways.

Alex Derenne

Alex Derenne is an Associate Broker with Real Broker LLC, where she co-leads The Powerhouse Partners, and a Sales Associate for Victory Homes of Wisconsin and Allan Builders. Her dual role gives her a unique perspective as both an experienced Realtor and someone who understands the nuances of new construction from the builder side, allowing her to advocate effectively for clients and colleagues across the industry.

Alex has been an active leader within the Greater Milwaukee Association of Realtors, serving as Chair of the Young Professionals Network in 2025 and Vice Chair in 2024. During her leadership, YPN organized impactful educational programs, networking opportunities, and service events including the 2025 Pack the Truck initiative, which raised $40,000 for the Milwaukee Homeless Veterans Initiative. She also served as Events Director for the Women's Council of Realtors in 2023, furthering her commitment to creating meaningful opportunities for members to grow and connect.

Nationally, Alex was honored as part of the National Association of Realtors 30 Under 30 Class of 2024. She remains active with this prestigious network and plans to continue her service to the industry by joining a National Association of Realtors committee in 2026. Her dedication to collaboration, professional development, and community service reflects her belief that Realtors have both the opportunity and responsibility to strengthen the industry and the communities they serve.

Outside of real estate, Alex is a devoted wife, proud goldendoodle owner, and avid traveler with a love for wine, cooking, and fitness. She brings the same dedication and energy to her personal life that she does to her professional pursuits, building relationships, fostering community, and always striving for growth.

Alex's proven leadership within GMAR, combined with her national recognition and builder side perspective, make her a strong candidate to continue serving the Greater Milwaukee Association of Realtors as a member of the Board of Directors.

Angela Kallay

Angela brings a unique perspective to the table. Having been a sales associate, owner of an independent brokerage, and now affiliated with an international brand, she has experience that not all Realtors and broker-owners can draw upon. Having been in the business for 20 years, she has been through all different markets. She has through the years attended conventions, conferences and furthered her knowledge through various channels through the national and state levels, but not limiting herself to one scope or one viewpoint. She believes strongly in the diversity of the market place and consumer choice and consumer protection. Honesty, integrity and commitment to professionalism are values that she strives for every day to uphold personally and in her business. Running and growing an office that serves all of southeastern Wisconsin and 20 Realtors; education, training, and market knowledge are at the forefront of her daily life and have been as a committed full time Realtor.

She has dedicated a good portion of her management life to not only serving the real estate community through her service on the Public Policy and Forms committee for the WRA and the GMAR Professional Standards Committee, as a former board member and President of the Women's Council of Realtors, Milwaukee Network, but also working to help Realtors build a grow their business without sacrificing themselves in the pursuit of success. She believes that her unique experiences as a sales associate, broker owner, and previous ownership of a title company, allow her to be an advocate for Realtors in all areas of the marketplace regardless of their affiliation with a brand, boutique or independent brokerage.

Beau Mitcham

Beaudrae “Beau” Mitcham began his real estate career at the age of 18, following in the footsteps of his father, who owned his own brokerage. After an early start as a loan officer, Beau quickly realized his true path was in real estate. Within just 30 days, he earned his broker’s license and launched his own firm, growing it to five offices spanning from Kenosha to Lake Country.

Since 2013, Beau has proudly served as the Broker/Owner of Elements Realty in Oconomowoc, WI. Over his 21-year career, he has developed expertise across multiple areas of the industry—including appraisals, REO and foreclosure sales, investment properties, rentals, commercial transactions, and residential sales. His experience flipping more than 60 homes, managing REO portfolios, and guiding families through traditional buying and selling has given him a uniquely well-rounded perspective. Today, his focus remains on serving residential clients while mentoring agents and contributing to the growth of the real estate community.

In addition to running a successful brokerage, Beau serves on the GMAR Board of Ethics and is the Treasurer for the Wisconsin Division of Fencing. Known as a leader and mentor, he takes great pride in supporting fellow Realtors, friends, and community members in achieving their goals.

Outside of real estate, Beau is a devoted husband and father of four who has enjoyed coaching his children’s sports teams. He finds joy in golf, travel, reading, and time outdoors, as well as in the simple pleasures of quiet moments at home. His faith, focus on integrity, and customer-first approach have guided him through more than $100 million in career transactions, consistently ranking him among the top professionals in his market.

Sheena Polachowski

In 2014, Sheena transitioned into real estate after more than a decade of service in social services, including two AmeriCorps terms and her work as a Milwaukee Wraparound Care Coordinator. She began her real estate career as an assistant to one of Milwaukee's top-producing teams, where she gained firsthand experience in the operations of a high-performing real estate business.

Sheena is deeply committed to community impact through her long-standing involvement with the Greater Milwaukee Association of REALTORS® Youth Foundation. For the past 11 years, she has served on the Grants Committee, helping to direct funding to local youth initiatives, and she currently serves as the Fundraising Chair, leading efforts to expand the Foundation's reach and impact.

Dedicated to professional growth and education, Sheena has authored and developed a buyer discovery and consultation workbook for agents- a tool designed to strengthen client relationships and elevate the buyer consultation process. She believes in the power of continuous learning, collaboration, and innovation to meet the evolving needs of today's real estate industry.

Sheena is passionate about using her experience in both real estate and social services to serve the REALTOR® community, foster professional excellence, and ensure the industry continues to give back in meaningful ways.

Mo Simmons

Simmons has been a licensed real estate professional since 2017 and is the Broker/Owner of Synergy Real Estate Group, a full-service brokerage based in Milwaukee. With nearly a decade of industry experience, Mo has built her career on creating opportunities for buyers and sellers while elevating professional standards in real estate.

In addition to running a growing brokerage, Mo currently serves as the 2025 President of the Women's Council of REALTORS® Wisconsin and has held multiple leadership roles at the local and state levels, including Past President and Director of Programs of WCR Milwaukee Metro. She is also active in the Greater Milwaukee real estate community through her work on the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee and the Public Policy Committee, as well as her membership with Take Root Milwaukee.

Mo's dedication extends beyond her business—she is committed to building pathways for the next generation of real estate professionals. She is launching a nonprofit organization to support young Black and Brown adults in obtaining their real estate licenses, removing financial barriers to entry and helping them establish careers in real estate.

Outside of real estate, Mo embraces her creative side as a lover of the arts. She enjoys cooking and considers herself a foodie, finds inspiration in spoken word poetry, and has a passion for the stage. A thespian at heart, Mo has explored acting and continues to value the power of performance and storytelling as a way to connect with others.
