

10th Annual Fostering Financial Education in Maine Schools Conference

Pre-Conference Agenda
May 9, 2019
Senator Inn, Augusta, Maine

1:30 – 2:30	Registration
2:30 – 3:30	Conference Welcome Mary Dyer, President of the Maine Jumpstart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy will kick off the event, including important highlights from the past 10 years.
3:30 – 4:30	The Current State of Financial Education and Strategies for Improvement Tim Ranzetta, Co-Founder and President of Next Gen Personal Finance will provide participants with an overview of school-based financial education, along with an opportunity to discuss and identify key stakeholders and strategies for improving student access and school-wide engagement.
4:30 – 5:00	Hotel Check-In (keys to be distributed by ME JS staff)
5:00 – 5:30	Cocktails
5:30 – 6:00	Project Groundswell Laura Levine, President and CEO of the National Jumpstart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy will join us to provide a national perspective on the last 10 years of personal financial education, including Jumpstart's latest initiative, Project Groundswell .
6:00 – 7:00	Town & Country FCU Dinner Celebration
7:00 – 8:00	The Fast Tracks and Brain Hacks for Enhanced Financial Literacy Jac Arbour, CFP®, ChFC® is an American author with expertise in personal development and financial literacy. He is the President of J.M. Arbour Wealth Management and serves as a personal finance coach to families across the nation. In his talk, Jac will draw on his experience as a financial advisor and as a lifetime student of personal development to connect the dots between how people think about money and the results they experience. Specifically, Jac will discuss: • How our perception of money is often times a result of our social conditioning • How to relieve ourselves of self-imposed limitations and expectations • The power of visualization and its ability to rewire our neuronal circuitry and belief system with regards to money • The power and practice of gratitude • Failure as an element of the success cycle • The most financially valuable asset we all have • Our circles of influence Jac will offer a ten minute Q&A session at the end of his talk, followed by a book signing of "May You Drink from the Saucer."

Friday's Full Conference: Registration and breakfast begin at 7:30am. The opening session begins at 8:00am.

Hotel Information: 1) Parking: there is ample parking at the Senator. 2) Check-in: will be done for you in advance. Room keys will be distributed during the afternoon sessions. A personal credit card must be provided at the front desk if you wish to make any charges to the room. 3) Breakfast on Friday will be provided at the Augusta Civic Center starting at 7:30am.