First Presbyterian Church
Lexington, NC
Job Title: Director of Christian Education

Qualifications

- A Christ-loving, energetic person who wants to grow people in the faith, possessing a knowledge of scripture and a theological perspective compatible with the Reformed tradition.
- Comfortable with technology, teaching and reaching across digital mediums and adapting to a changing world.
- Comfortable working across generations, creating an integrated family culture in our church, and speaking to groups.
- Preferred 4-year degree in Christian Education or similar discipline and 2 years of experience.

Job Description

- Coordinate, strengthen, and regularly assess the needs of the Christian Education program, helping to build an integrated and effective ministry.
- Invite, train, and support volunteers to lead or assist with the educational ministries of the church.
- Oversee Child Protection Policy.
- Work with the pastor, children and youth leaders to involve people of all ages in worship and service.
- Design, evaluate, recommend, purchase, and implement Session-approved Sunday School curriculum for all ages with the consultation of the CE team.
- Promote participation in Christian Education opportunities through the newsletter, bulletin, mailings, and other appropriate means.
- Plan adult education opportunities, including Sundays and at other times during the week.
- Serve as a resource for all educational ministries, providing training, support and encouragement to leaders as well as hands-on assistance when needed for:
    - Acts Alive (Senior High School Youth Group)
    - Young Disciples (Middle School Youth Group)
    - Kingdom Kids (Children's Church)
    - Vacation Bible School
    - Churchwide family retreat
    - Other intergenerational events like (Christmas Family Night and Trunk or Treat)
- Prepare a proposed annual budget for all Christian Education in consultation with key leaders.
- Attend staff meetings serving as a colleague to promote the goals and vision of the church.
- Serve as an ex-officio member of the Christian Educational Ministry Team.
- Attend Session meetings with voice.

Time Expectations

- This is a half time, salaried position.
- Weekday hours are flexible with some regular office hours. Present on Sunday.

fpclexnc.com Send Resumé to dcejobsearch@fpclexnc.com Deadline is May 5, 2023