

Our History:

Presbyterian Counseling Center of Greensboro, located in Greensboro, NC, is a non-profit, non-sectarian practice established in 1975 to ensure that people in our community would have access to affordable and effective mental health services. Our interdisciplinary team includes therapists and medical staff with licensure and expertise in a wide range of mental health issues to include Anxiety / Stress, Depression, Substance Use Disorders, Grief and Loss, Marriage and Family, Medical Management and Crisis Intervention to name a few.

Our goals:

Presbyterian Counseling Center wants to expand the practice to surrounding counties to provide comprehensive mental health assessments and ongoing counseling for individuals, families and groups. We strive to provide quality, affordable care for our patients, regardless of their socio-economic status.
