

Saturday
Nov 17th, 2018
Chaminade
University -
Halealoha
(Faculty Center)
8:30-4:00pm

Democracy & the Informed Citizen: Visual Literacy from Political Cartoons to Graphic Novels

This program is part of the "Democracy and the Informed Citizen" initiative, administered by the Federation of State Humanities Councils.

This workshop will look at how social issues can be addressed in visual popular culture and print media. It will also look at political cartoons in history as a means of raising social and political issues of the times. The workshop will include:

- * Comic Book Literacy: Integrating illustrated stories of history and biography: into the American History curriculum
- *Visual Literacy in the Classroom: Engaging Student Learning with Graphic Novel Projects
- *Making the Political, Personal: Utilizing Political Cartoons to Develop Students' Political Engagement
- *Graphic Novels: Anime, Manga & Marvel

Travel stipends are available for neighbor island teachers. For more information, please contact Shannon Cristobal at (808) 732-5402 x.2 or historyday@hihumanities.org

This workshop is sponsored by the Hawai'i Council for the Humanities, Chaminade History Center, Chaminade Center for Teaching & Learning, National Endowment for the Humanities, The Sidney Stern Memorial Trust and the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts. We thank the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation for their generous support of this initiative and the Pulitzer Prizes for their partnership.

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/democracy-and-the-informed-citizen-visual-literacy-from-political-cartoons-to-graphic-novels-tickets-50504430110>