

Title IX and its Hawai`i Connections

September 8, 2019, Sunday; 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
McKinley High School Auditorium

Join us for the viewing of the award-winning film Rise of the Wahine and a panel discussion highlighting the impact of Title IX on gender equity. Hear about the extraordinary contributions to this landmark legislation by two Hawai`i women: the late Representative Patsy Mink and the late Dr. Donnis Thompson.

- |                  |   |
|------------------|---|
| 1:00 p.m. | Doors open  |
| 1:30 p.m. | Introductions and welcome  |
| 1:45 p.m. | Viewing of the Rise of the Wahine (see trailer at www.RiseOfTheWahineFilm.com)   |
| 2:45 p.m. | Panel discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Beth McLachlin, former UH Wahine Volleyball Player</li><li>- Dave Shoji, former UH Wahine Volleyball Coach</li><li>- Ron Okamura, Principal, McKinley High School</li><li>- Marilyn Moniz-Kaho`ohanohano, former UH Associate Athletics Director and UH Wahine Volleyball Player</li><li>- Dean Kaneshiro, Panel Moderator and Rise of the Wahine Producer</li></ul> |
| 4:00 p.m. | Closing  |

Open to the public at no cost.

Free parking on campus. Enter from the Pensacola Street entrance.

Sponsored by the Hawai`i State Organization of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International (DKG) and the DKG Educational Foundation