

Devotional Questions: Holy Week

For each day -
Good news mantra: Like Jesus, I will choose mercy.

Sunday: As Jesus processes into Jerusalem, the people cry “Hosanna!” which means “Save us!”. Who is crying out to be saved now? How can you act with mercy?

Monday: Who inspires you to take action? What do they inspire you to do?

Tuesday: When is it easy to follow Jesus? When is it hard?

Wednesday: Jesus invites all his disciples to his final meal, even those who will sell him out. How can you extend hospitality even to people you find hard to love or trust?

Thursday: What is your biggest regret? Have you forgiven yourself?

Friday: When you feel threatened, how do you respond? Are you more likely to retreat or fight back?

Saturday: Jesus offers his crucifiers forgiveness, even as he is dying on the cross. Who feels hardest to forgive? What would forgiveness look like?
