

Devotional Questions: Lent Week 5

For each day -
Good news mantra: I am rooted in what matters most.

Sunday: Jesus tells the Pharisees that the most important part of the law is not simply following the rules, but enacting justice, mercy, and faithfulness (Matthew 23:23). What does this interpretation teach you about our faith?

Monday: Have you ever been on the receiving end of someone's mercy? How did it impact you? How can you pay that forward?

Tuesday: What rhythms and rituals help you cultivate a life of faithfulness?

Wednesday: We often think of justice on a macro scale. Are there ways to practice justice through small, daily acts? What comes to mind?

Thursday: When you think about justice, mercy and faithfulness, which one feels hardest for you to live out? Why might that be?

Friday: What does it mean to you that Jesus protected someone others were ready to condemn? (John 8:2-11) How might that shape the way you live today?

Saturday: What area of your life feels complicated right now? Could justice, faithfulness, or mercy help you find your way forward?
