

RESTORATIVE PRACTICES: CHANGING OUR RESPONSE TO WRONGDOING

Saturday, January 26: 9 am – Noon

First Presbyterian Church

2344 Center Street, Bethlehem

A free community workshop by Bob Costello

We talk about restorative justice and restorative practices but what do those terms really mean? How are these considerations even relevant for "regular" people? How might these practices help us resolve conflict at home, school, work, place of worship, etc.? How can individuals or groups make a difference for others involved in the criminal justice system?

For middle schoolers, young adults, and adults of all ages.

Bob Costello is the Assistant Commissioner for Organizational Development at the New York City Department of Probation. He has more than 20 years of experience in the fields of mental health, drug and alcohol rehabilitation, inpatient and outpatient services and alternative education. Bob is the co-author of The Restorative Practices Handbook for Teachers, Disciplinarians and Administrators and Restorative Circles in Schools: Building Community and Enhancing Learning.
