Ten “Best Kind” Experiences on a Newfoundland Circumnavigation

Each Adventure Canada expedition holds its own unique highlights. Hearty culture, rich history, unbeatable scenery, and the rockin’ geology here make us want to shout, “Yes, b’y!” from the rooftops. Join a Newfoundland Circumnavigation for a chance to savour these ten experiences.

1

Get dramatic at L’Anse aux Meadows, the only authenticated Norse site in North America

One thousand years ago, at the tip of Newfoundland’s Great Northern Peninsula, Leif Erikson and his crew of Vikings became the first Europeans to visit North America. The settlement they established, L’Anse aux Meadows, was unearthed in 1960 and today is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Tour the intriguing interpretive centre and then visit the reconstructed Scandinavian-style sod buildings, where staff in period costume re-enact and explain what life here was like for those pioneering Norsemen.

2 Appreciate why Newfoundland is called the Rock at stark, stunning Gros Morne

Welcome to Gros Morne National Park and UNESCO World Heritage Site! Newfoundland's most dramatic landscape is an austere, ancient, wind-wracked plateau 600 metres high, slashed by plunging fjords. Choose a hike that suits you best. (Five hours along the Trout River? A short stroll on the Tablelands?) The park's Discovery Centre provides a wealth of information about the geological importance of the area. The nearby town of Woody Point, meanwhile, is great for crafts and cappuccino.

3 Fall in love with Francois, the finest little outpost on the Rock

Pronounced "Fransway," this small town is peak Newfoundland. The iconic remote outpost is home to ninety or so fisherfolk and—since there's no road out—zero cars, all snug in a rocky amphitheatre with a waterfall cascading right through town into the splendid harbour. If you're ambitious, scramble 200 metres up to the top of the Friar. If you're feeling more relaxed, stick to the boardwalks that wriggle through town. Photograph the vivid homes clinging to the shoreline, visit the small general store and museum, grab a drink at the Shed, and chat with the garrulous locals.

4 "Basque" in Labrador's sixteenth-century whaling history at legendary Red Bay

Crossing the Strait of Belle Isle, you reach mainland Labrador and the Red Bay Basque Whaling Station, yet another UNESCO World Heritage Site in this great province. Here, Basque mariners operated North America's first export industry, hunting bowhead and right whales and rendering their fat into oil. The interpretation centre features items recovered from the wreck of the 500-year-old whaling ship San Juan. Pay your respects at the whalers' graveyard, check out the excavations at Saddle Island, and hike to the top of Tracey Hill.

5 Get cozy in Conche, the cultural epicentre of French Newfoundland

Snug on the province's French Shore, the village of Conche is pure Newfoundland charm. Don't miss a visit to the town's pride and joy: the locally crafted French Shore Tapestry, winding through the Interpretation Centre for a staggering 227 feet and depicting the history of the region. Or take a hike around town to spy whales, bald eagles, and an intriguing landscape formation called the glass hole. Nothing caps off a day better than a fresh-caught homemade fish supper, folksongs, and a dance (also called a scuff) with warm-hearted locals at the community hall.

6 Dance and delight in lively Miawpukek

A long Zodiac ride up the Conne River takes you to the community of Miawpukek First Nation, whose name means "middle river" in the Mi'kmaq language. It is one of the two fastest growing communities in the province and is a vibrant hotspot. Here you can visit the powwow grounds, enjoy a cultural presentation, and receive a formal welcome from the local leaders this special community.

7 Savour the colourful cityscape of St. John's, Newfoundland

Clinging to Canada's easternmost tip, Newfoundland's historic and vibrant capital, St. John's, is a city brimming with character, and it's worth planning to spend a few extra days here. Sailing through the famous Narrows, keep your eyes out for its photogenic attractions—including Signal Hill, the Basilica of St. John the Baptist, The Rooms (the city's cultural centre), and the bright houses of the Battery neighbourhood. Beyond, the wild North Atlantic takes over. Watch for whales, seabirds, and, in the springtime, icebergs—some towering twenty-five storeys above the waterline!

8 See why whales and seabirds flock to the famous Grand Banks

The shallow waters along the south coast of Newfoundland are among the world's richest fishing grounds, for both humans and animals alike. While at sea, search the waves for whales—humpbacks especially, plus fins, minkes, and white-sided dolphins. Birders, too, will be delighted by the likely profusion of gannets, shearwaters, and sea ducks.

9 Revel in picturesque charm on the north coast

Newfoundland's north shore is famous for the traditional, picturesque fishing villages dotting its rocky isles and inlets. Prime attractions include Bonavista, the landing place of explorer John Cabot in 1497 (O buona vista! Oh, happy sight!), with its landmark lighthouse and full-scale replica of Cabot's ship, the Matthew. Also check out the Mockbeggar Plantation, with the oldest wooden buildings in Newfoundland, once central to the area's fishing operations, and the lushly forested oceanfront of Terra Nova National Park.

10 Sail to France—yes, really!

Just kilometres offshore of Newfoundland is Saint-Pierre and Miquelon, an official territory of the French Republic and its last colonial jurisdiction in North America. The 6,000 locals drive Citroens, smoke Gauloises, and pay in euros, but are crazy about ice hockey. Here you can (over)indulge in French food, wine, and shopping—without having to fly clear to Paris.

Enriching Expeditions in Spectacular Locations

Your personal voyage of discovery

Explore and learn about new lands and peoples as you experience the rich cultures and fascinating landscapes we sail to. Take the road less travelled and enrich your perspective during visits to communities, natural habitats, and historic sites that can be otherwise difficult to reach.

Our expeditions are designed to be flexible and allow us to make the best of Mother Nature's conditions. We often make landfall at new places and are able to share new discoveries and local knowledge with you. Your voyage will be marked with thoughtful discussions, expert interpretation, and the spirit of discovery.

Get off the ship, get into a Zodiac!

Cruise among icebergs; search for marine mammals; visit an outpost community; wander remote coastlines... simply enjoy the freedom of being out on the water daily! Our goal is to get you off the ship as often as possible.

Zodiacs free us from the dependency on ports, piers, and other built infrastructure. These safe, stable, versatile boats take you where the action is.

Learn from passionate experts

Why would an esteemed Canada Research Chair, for example, travel with us on a working vacation? It's simple: they can't resist the opportunity to engage, excite, educate, and enlighten you! Make the most of every learning opportunity, aboard and ashore, in geology, botany, marine biology, archaeology, photography, cultural history, and more!

Our hand-picked experts are as excited as you are to be on board. Join them on deck searching for wildlife, share daily meals for personal in-depth conversations, participate in workshops, attend presentations, and learn on the land. The Adventure Canada team has a deep love for discovery, learning, exploration, and growth, and is at your service.

Experience local culture and traditions

From Arctic communities to the fishing villages of former New France, to the outports of Newfoundland and Labrador, we embrace local music, dance, food, language, and traditions, everywhere we go!

Expedition travel isn't just about what you see, or where you go. It's who you meet and get to know.

Wildlife encounters

Daily excursions with expert guides put you where you are most likely to see wildlife: whales and seabirds in Atlantic Canada; muskox, seals, and polar bears in the High Arctic. Whether viewing on deck, in the Zodiac, or learning during our presentation series, you'll come away with an appreciation for the fine creatures that inhabit our world. Our best practices ensure the safety and integrity of the wildlife we have the privilege to view.

Itinerary

DAY 1: ST. JOHN'S, NL, CANADA

Welcome to St. John's—Newfoundland's historic, vibrant capital. Sailing out of the port of St. John's, Signal Hill keeps watch as we exit the world-famous Narrows. The charming houses of the Battery are always a hit with shutterbugs. Watch for icebergs, whales, and seabirds as we sail!

DAY 2-4: THE NORTHEAST COAST

The northeast coast of Newfoundland is known for the dozens of picturesque villages that dot its rocky shores, and we'll find harbour in one of these unique communities. We look forward to a characteristically warm Newfoundland welcome upon our arrival. Photographers will have their work cut out for them capturing all the special charm of classic island communities and picturesque coastlines.

©Dennis Minty

DAY 5: L'ANSE AUX MEADOWS

L'Anse aux Meadows, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is the only authenticated Norse settlement in North America. The archaeological remains found here in 1960 date to approximately 1000 CE. Amazingly, the location was first established by a close reading of the Viking sagas.

Today, a superb interpretation centre and several reconstructed Norse-style sod buildings make L'Anse aux Meadows a must-see for any visitor to Newfoundland and Labrador.

DAY 6: RED BAY

The Red Bay Basque Whaling Station became a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2013. Basque whalers operated out of the Red Bay harbour in the 1500s: North America's first export industry.

The interpretation centre at Red Bay is excellent. Here we find tools, personal items, and navigational instruments recovered from the wreck of the whaling ship San Juan. The ship was lost in a storm in 1565 and found centuries later submerged in the harbour. We'll visit nearby Saddle Island to learn the history of the whaling industry.

DAY 7: GROS MORNE AND WOODY POINT

Gros Morne National Park's Tablelands, a six-hundred-metre plateau, form one of the world's best examples of exposed mantle. Normally found below the Earth's crust, the mineral-rich rocks support very little life, making the Tablelands an eerie landscape.

We will offer various walking and hiking options here. Views of Bonne Bay are spectacular. Gros Morne's interpretation centre is excellent and the town of Woody Point is a delight to explore.

DAY 8-9: THE SOUTH COAST

The wild and windswept coast of southern Newfoundland is home to a few remaining outpost communities. Visits here are often a highlight of our trips.

There are many choices of unique bays and coves to explore via Zodiac or land excursions. Along the coast, the geology is outstanding, and the plant life is gorgeous. We'll be on the watch for wildlife, too. We'll make the most of every chance to explore this beautiful and remote coast.

DAY 10: MIAWPUKEK (CONNE RIVER)

The First Nations community of Miawpukek became a permanent settlement sometime around 1822. Before then, it was one of many semi-permanent camping sites used by the Mi'kmaw people—who had traditionally travelled nomadically throughout the east coast of Canada.

Since its establishment as a reserve in 1987, Miawpukek has successfully bridged traditional knowledge and contemporary practice. We will receive a formal welcome from local leaders and have a chance to explore this special community.

DAY 11: SAINT-PIERRE, FRANCE

Explore Saint-Pierre, a last bastion of France's colonial territories in North America. The colourful and charming shops and residences of the town of Saint-Pierre reveal its unique historical character.

French food, wine, clothing, and culture are all on offer here. The sweets at the local cafes and bakeries are in high demand. Saint-Pierre offers a taste of European living, just a short sail from the coast of Newfoundland!

DAY 12: ST. JOHN'S, NL, CANADA

On the final day of our expedition, we sail back through the Narrows and into St. John's harbour. We will say our farewells and the expedition team will be on hand to assist you with luggage and transportation arrangements.
