

Overview of Quarantine Coverage & Benefits

As the COVID-19 situation continues to change, this document will help clarify how Manulife is covering quarantine expenses due to COVID-19 while on an insured trip.

Manulife Travel Insurance Plans offering quarantine coverage:

- The Manulife COVID-19 Pandemic Travel Plan
- Manulife Global Travel Insurance Plans that include Emergency Medical benefits

For Manulife Global Travel Insurance Plans that include Emergency Medical benefits, the following three conditions must be met for quarantine coverage:

1. The insured must be fully vaccinated at least 14 days prior to starting their trip
2. The destination must not have an “Avoid all travel” or “Avoid non-essential travel” Canadian Government travel advisory due to COVID-19
3. The trip departure date must be on or after February 28, 2022

Quarantine coverage will also be extended for Manulife Global Travel Insurance Plans that include Emergency Medical benefits if:

You or your travel companion, at any destination in your trip, are:

- Denied entry and requested to quarantine by a medical professional or
- Required to self-isolate or quarantine, as requested by a medical professional, in your destination beyond your original return date

Quarantine benefits covered under Manulife Global Travel Insurance Plans that include Emergency Medical benefits:

Extra expenses for meals,
accommodation, telephone calls and taxi fares

Expenses to bring you home

The quarantine coverage will apply for the full duration of your trip up to the benefit maximum.

See Quarantine Coverage Comparison by Plan table for amounts and details.
