About the Event

Join us for the 31st Annual Meet the Authors' Night & Book Fair at The University Club of Washington, DC.

This special event provides a unique opportunity for you to connect with your favorite authors. You can purchase personalized copies of your favorite books, perfect gifts for the upcoming holidays.

This annual event returns after a three-year pandemic hiatus!

Up to 40 authors with recently published books will be on hand to sign and personalize copies of books purchased on site. Genres of books represented will include history, politics, biography, fiction, gardening, cookbooks, children's literature, travel, and others of general interest. Only books purchased at the event will be allowed.
