Christine currently serves as Director of 3rd Party and Senior Property Manager for Weitzman and has been in the commercial real estate industry for 16 years. Weitzman, founded in 1989, is a Texas-based retail-focused commercial real estate services firm. In addition to San Antonio, Weitzman operates offices in Dallas-Fort Worth, Austin and Houston.

The firm is a recognized leader in each of Texas' major-metro markets and offers project representation, tenant representation, investment properties brokerage, development services and property and asset management services. Weitzman is ranked by "National Real Estate Investor" magazine as one of the 50 largest retail property management firms in U.S. In San Antonio, Weitzman ranks as a Top 20 Commercial Real Estate Brokerage firm and as the market's No. 3 Retail Property Management firm.

Weitzman currently leases 51 San Antonio properties totaling 3.8 million square feet, and manages 17 properties totaling 2.5 million square feet. As a developer, Weitzman has been responsible for several landmark properties, including Dominion Ridge and Live Oak Town Center, which is currently being planned in phases following this year's opening of the first major anchor, IKEA.

Christine has been a member of CREW San Antonio for 12 years and has served on the Forum Committee and received two Outstanding Committee Member awards. When asked about CREW's impact within her career, Christine states: "The network, leadership and professional development have helped me and my company recognize successful members and opportunities because of the loyalty, which in-turn has made everyone successful." In addition to CREW, Christine is also a member of International Council of Shopping Centers (IREM). She received both her MBA and Bachelor's degree from the University of the Incarnate Word. Christine is celebrating 16 years with her successful husband—owner of KGC – Krueger General Contractors. For fun, Christine enjoys skeet shooting on the San Antonio Women's Gun League.
