BOOSTING INCLUSION IN THE NEW NORMAL

The last few years have brought lots of cultural change into the workplace—what does this mean for teams and leaders looking to avoid the pitfalls—and maybe even tap into the promise—of our diverse world? This session will explore current language, thinking and practice around diversity equity inclusion and belonging.

MAKING THE IMPLICIT EXPLICIT: EXPANDING OUR AWARENESS AROUND BIAS

As the U.S. becomes increasingly diverse amid socially tense times, an increased cultural humility becomes more important for day-to-day interactions in the workplace and beyond. One important way to increase cultural humility is to expand our awareness around how bias and prejudice informs our thoughts, feelings, and behaviors.
