Auditions: Dancers are required to attend the audition to participate as a company member. Attending the audition shows commitment to the project as well as gives the directors a chance to best cast the production. The auditions are informal and all dancers receive a part.

Moving Light Dance Company Requirements

Pay the Company Fee at the Audition.

Attend the audition and do your best.

Commit to being present at all rehearsals.

Rehearsals: Rehearsals are mandatory to ensure a productive and enjoyable process and successful performance. We understand that dancers have other responsibilities and prefer to have a full commitment. One missed rehearsal will be excused. Please communicate in advance for any planned missed rehearsals. This factor will affect casting.

Commit to attending Company Class or the technique class prior to rehearsals and follow the Moving Light Dance Codes of Conduct.

Company Class: Youth Level 2 & 3, Junior & Senior Teen Company members are required to attend class prior to rehearsals. Company class is mandatory for the health and safety of the dancers

Honor the Process by following the Principles of Company Member Behavior.

Junior, Senior & Adult Company Members are required to participate in STRIKE.

Strike: Dancers will sign up for a strike job during production week. At the end of the performance run dancers will have 20 minutes to connect with family and friends. Dancers will be excused at 6pm.

Moving Light Dance Codes of Conduct and Principles of Company Member Behavior may be found online and will be distributed at the Audition.
