

Improving Learning And Memory In Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI)

Researchers at Kessler Foundation are currently investigating the effectiveness of a memory skills training in individuals with Mild Cognitive Impairment

You might be eligible to participate if you:

- Are 60 or older
- Can read and speak English fluently
- Have difficulties with learning and memory skills

KESSLER FOUNDATION

IRB APPROVAL EXPIRES
January 28, 2026
KESSLER FOUNDATION

What does it require?

- Five study assessment visits, each lasting 2-3 hours
- Option to complete a 60-minute fMRI at 2 time points
- A blood draw at assessment visit 2
- Twice a week intervention for 5 weeks, each session lasting 1 hour
- Possible once a month sessions between assessment visits

Participants can receive up to $700 for completion of the study

To learn more and see if you are eligible, please contact:
Diana Maloku
120 Eagle Rock Ave, Suite 100
East Hanover NJ 07936
(973) 324-8393 / dmaloku@kesslerfoundation.org

SCAN ME!