

Transportation Equity 2018

PLEASE JOIN us October 11th for a day of thoughtful discussion on ways to address barriers to transportation faced by many persons with disabilities and older adults in our communities.

Location: Cuyahoga County Public Library-Parma Snow Branch, 2121 Snow Road, Parma

Time: 10 – 3. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. Lunch will be provided.

- ✓ LEARN about local and state initiatives to enhance transportation options for persons with disabilities.
- ✓ HEAR about developing, effective strategies to impact local and state policy to address transportation barriers.
- ✓ IDENTIFY steps you can take to move the transportation conversation forward!

We are thrilled to have nationally recognized transportation advocate Carol Tyson with us for the day. Carol is the Government Affairs Liaison for DREDF (Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund) in Washington DC where she meets with and informs Congressional and federal agency staff about policy issues which advance legislation benefiting the disability community. Prior to joining DREDF, Carol was Director of Disability Policy for United Spinal Association, serving on numerous task forces and working with groups to eliminate barriers to transportation and bicycle and pedestrian safety.

RSVP Required by October 4! If you are attending, please cut and paste or click on the following URL to be connected to the registration site: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/transportation-equity-forum-tickets-49945572552>

* Need help with accommodations, registration or additional information? Contact Kathy @ (216) 731-1529 or kfoley@sil-oh.org. Accommodation requests must be received by October 1.

* Please note: This is a fragrance-free forum. Individuals attending the forum are asked to not wear perfume, cologne, scented powders and other fragrances for the comfort and safety of other participants.

THANK YOU to the Ohio Developmental Disabilities Council for making this day possible!!