

ABILITIES R US

DISCUSSION GROUP FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES
SPONSORED BY SERVICES FOR INDEPENDENT LIVING, INC.

COME JOIN US

“The ^{little} Things that Matter”

Educational prospective about individuals with disabilities, understanding their lives, interest and abilities to soAR.

Facilitator: Trina Roddy, Independent Living Specialist

Guest Speaker: Ericca Mason, BA,

*Ericca will be speaking about her disability Muscular Dystrophy (SMA Type 2) Spinal Muscle Atrophy. She will be addressing the etiquettes dealing with persons with a disability, their abilities and interests. If you or someone you know have a disability, or if you would like to learn about Muscular Dystrophy (SMA Type 2) or need motivation on how to become independent with a disability, all are welcome!

Wednesday, May 15, 2019 from 1:00 - 3:00 PM
34125 Portz Parkway • Solon, Ohio 44139
(Solon Branch Library)

If you need assistance with personal care, please bring someone with you.
Our staff cannot assist in personal care (toileting, feeding, etc.)

Please RSVP one week in advance. Comments and suggestions are welcome!
If you need accommodations such as handouts, large print, or CART services, please let us know in advance.

Contact Trina Roddy Phone: 216-731-1529 (7.1.1 Ohio Relay Service) or Email: troddy@sil-oh.org