

Sherry Prindle's colorful history and penchant for researching, formulating, structuring, and taking quick action make her the one to call when creating something that has "never been done before." She has a natural ability to translate concepts and desired outcomes into effective training programs.

International speaker and trainer, Sherry Prindle has delivered over 4,000 presentations in six countries in three languages. As one of few trainers who delivers both technical and soft skills content, she has a track record of outstanding long-term results with developing desired skillsets and effecting change in individuals and organizations.

Thirsting to increase training effectiveness, Sherry researched the unparalleled success of coaching as a preventor of recidivism and became a Certified Master Coach Trainer through the Certified Coaches Federation where she became a Regional Vice President, conducting Professional Coach Certification training throughout the Midwest and Southwest. She founded the Professional Coach Academy where she has created Certified Professional Coach, Certified Executive Coach, and Certified Master Coach training programs delivered to individuals and organizations.
