PACKERS INVITE STUDENTS TO TAKE PART IN #STAYHOMESTAYSTRONG SWEEPSTAKES

Students, fans of all ages invited to capture photos and videos of their exercise and activity for a chance to win Packers prizes

With Green Bay Packers fans of all ages staying active from home amid the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Packers are inviting students to take part in the #StayHomeStayStrong Sweepstakes to encourage exercise and regular activity.

To enter, fans and parents of fans are asked to tweet photos or videos of themselves, their kids or another family member staying active while staying at home using the hashtag #StayHomeStayStrong and tagging @packers for a chance to win Packers prizes.

Parents are encouraged to send photos and videos of their kids enjoying exercise from home; fans under the age of 18 must have a parent or guardian post photos or videos on their behalf.

One lucky winner will receive an autographed Kenny Clark item, and three runners-up will receive a Packers backpack with assorted Packers school supplies inside.

The contest will run until April 24, at 10 a.m. Complete rules are available online at pckrs.com/shss-rules.
