Join us for an evening of art and activism spearheaded by playwright Lisa Ramirez that will be simultaneously translated in Spanish, and led by Guest Emcees V (formerly Eve Ensler), the Tony Award-winning playwright, activist and author of the Obie Award-winning theatrical phenomenon "The Vagina Monologues" and the critically acclaimed "The Apology", and Maria Hinojosa the Founder and President of Futuro Media Group and author of the recently released "Once I Was You".

Originally commissioned by Working Theater and inspired by actual interviews with immigrant workers in the poultry processing plants of upstate NY, "To the Bone" examines the very nature of equality and justice in contemporary America. This virtual reading brings back the acclaimed cast from the Cherry Lane Theatre production, and will benefit Sullivan County migrant farm workers in their fight for a farm workers' Bill of Rights at a time when their community has been disproportionately devastated by the COVID-19 pandemic.

All proceeds go to Rural & Migrant Ministry, Inc. to support the Sullivan County workers the play is based on. We are so excited to partner with everyone involved, and we hope you'll be able to join us for a spectacular evening. Tickets are free for farmworkers, so please help us to spread the word! Simultaneous interpretation will be provided.
