Psalm 105: 1-6, 16-22, 45b (St. Helena Psalter)

We give you thanks, O God, and call upon your Name; *
we make known your deeds among the peoples.
We sing to you; we sing your praise *
and speak of all your marvelous works.
We glory in your holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek you rejoice.
We search for you and your strength; *
we continually seek your face.
We remember the marvels you have done, *
the wonders and the judgments of your mouth.
O offspring of Abraham, your servant, *
O children of Jacob, the chosen ones.

Then you called for a famine in the land *
and destroyed the supply of bread.
You sent a man before them, *
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
They bruised his feet in fetters; *
his neck they put in an iron collar.
Until his prediction came to pass, *
your word, O Most High, tested him.
The king sent and released him; *
the ruler of the peoples set him free.
He set him as a master over his household, *
as a ruler over all his possessions,
To instruct his princes according to his will *
and to teach his elders wisdom.
and observe your laws. Alleluia!
