

Highlights from November Vestry Meeting

- New lighting has been installed in the Columbarium. New carpeting will also be installed in the narthex.
- Ascension has secured the services of a restorer and electrician to restore the lantern at the front of the church, pending approval from the Landmarks Commission.
- The Vestry is in the process of amending by-laws to allow for an online annual meeting and for votes to be conducted online and via mail.