GOSPEL READING John 3 14-21

¹⁴And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

¹⁶For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

¹⁷Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. ¹⁸Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. ¹⁹And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. ²⁰For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. ²¹But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

SENDING PRAYER – Read by Worship Asst.

Loving God,

how lavishly you pour out the costly gift of your grace upon us. Fill our homes with Your LIGHT and our lives with the fragrance of your love, so that we may show your glory and serve your people; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen! (From Office of Theology and Worship, Presbyterian Church -U.S.A.)

I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light

1 I want to walk as a child of the light. I want to 2 I want to see . . . the bright-ness of God. I want to 3 I'm look - ing for . . . the com - ing of Christ. I want to fol - low Je - sus. God set the stars to give look at Je - sus. Clear Sun of righ - teous-ness, be with Je - sus. When we have run . . . with light to the world. The star of my life is Je - sus.

 shine on my path, and show me the way to the Fa - ther.
 pa - tience the race, we shall know the joy of Je - sus.

Refrain

In him there is no dark-ness at all. The night and the day are both a - like. The Lamb is the light of the cit - y of God. Shine in my heart, Lord Je - sus.
