A dog barks when his master is attacked.
I would be a coward if I saw that God's truth is attacked and yet would remain silent.

Call to Worship

Spirit of the Living God: Comforter, Sanctifier, and Guide of our souls:

Come to us and help us, we pray.

Spirit of Wisdom, Infinite, Immortal, and Unsearchable, you who proceeds from the Father and is sent from the Son, have compassion on us and leads us into the light and life of Jesus.

Come to us and heal us, we pray.

You, to whom the Father is more ready to give good gifts than earthly parents are to their children, and you, whom Christ has promised to send upon his disciples, come to us, abide in us, and sanctify us by your truth and grace.

Holy Spirit, come and abide with us. Amen.

Opening Prayer

Confession of Sin

Family of the Living God, let us confess our sins together:

Our God, we come to you confessing that,
although we have begun by the Spirit,
we are quick to go back to the flesh and,
as a result, we become conceited,
we provoke one another, we envy one another,
and we fail to follow in the way of Jesus, our Lord.

Gracious God, forgive us
for trusting in our own strength
to your dishonor, our demise,
and the dehumanization of others.

We pray for renewal,
asking that you would be pleased to fill us more and more with your Spirit.

Offering

The offering is part of our regular worship. Our goal is that all gifts offered will come from an understanding that we give because God first gave to us, and that every penny will be carefully and thoughtfully invested in cultivating faith in Christ.

Prayers for the Church and the World

Passing of the Peace

As recipients of God's grace, we gladly receive peace from him.

Traditionally, Christians have greeted one another during this time in the service with the phrase, "The peace of Christ be with you," but you can also simply say, "Peace be with you."

Sermon

"The Other Side of Hesed" – 2 Samuel 12
Rev. Mike Kelly

Nathan Rebukes David

And the Lord sent Nathan to David. He came to him and said to him, "There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor. 2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds, 3 but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children. It used to eat of his morsel and drink from his cup and lie in his arms, and it was like a daughter to him. 4 Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was unwilling to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the guest who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him." 5 Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the Lord lives, the man who has done this deserves to die, 6 and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity."

7 Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. 8 And I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your arms and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if this were too little, I would add to you as much more. 9 Why have you despised the word of the Lord, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife to be your wife and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites. 10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.' 11 Thus says the Lord, 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house. And I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. 12 For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun.'" 13 David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the Lord, the child who is born to you shall die." 15 Then Nathan went to his house.

David's Child Dies

And the Lord afflicted the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and he became sick. 16 David therefore sought God on behalf of the child. And David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground. 17 And the elders of his house stood beside him, to raise him from the ground, but he would not, nor did he eat food with them. 18 On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us. How then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm." 19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David understood that the child was dead. And David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead." 20 Then David arose from the earth and washed and anointed himself and changed his clothes. And he went into the house of the Lord and worshiped. He then went to his own house. And when he asked, they set food before him, and he ate. 21 Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive; but when the child died, you arose and ate food." 22 He said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept, for I said, 'Who knows whether the Lord will be gracious to me, that the child may live?' 23 But now he is dead. Why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me."

Solomon's Birth

24 Then David comforted his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her, and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the Lord loved him 25 and sent a message by Nathan the prophet. So he called his name Jedidiah, because of the Lord.

Rabbah Is Captured

26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and took the royal city. 27 And Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah; moreover, I have taken the city of waters. 28 Now then gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called by my name." 29 So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah and fought against it and took it. 30 And he took the crown of their king from his head. The weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone, and it was placed on David's head. And he brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount. 31 And he brought out the people who were in it and set them to labor with saws and iron picks and iron axes and made them toil at the brick kilns. And thus he did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper, also called Communion or the Eucharist, is the family meal of Christians. We invite all baptized followers of Jesus Christ who acknowledge their sins against God and their neighbors, and confess their need for the grace of Christ to partake of this meal. If you are a Christian and haven't been baptized, please talk with one of our pastors. We would be honored to baptize you.

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Communion

Just as the climax of all history will be the Wedding Supper of the Lamb, we conclude our worship in the presence of God by feasting. The Spirit takes the common elements of bread and wine and feeds us spiritually with the body and blood of Jesus, for our nourishment and growth in grace, and so strengthens us to be sent out into the world as God's agents of his generous hospitality.

You will be asked to come forward and receive the bread (gluten free bread will be in the plastic cups) and wine (grape juice is on the outer rings) from the elders and deacons. Please take the elements back to your seats and we will then partake together. Those unable to come forward will be served at their seats.

We ask that you dispense with your cups by the back door following the service.

HEAR THE CALL OF THE KINGDOM

KEITH & KRISTYN GETTY, STUART TOWNEND — 2005

The musical score is written for a single voice part in 4/4 time, using a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The score consists of seven lines of music. The first four lines form the main body of the song, and the last three lines form a refrain. The lyrics are: 'Hear the call of the King-dom to reach out to the lost; with the Fa - ther's com - pas - sion, in the won - der of the cross. Bring - ing peace and for - give - ness and a hope yet to come, let the na - tions put their trust in him. Refrain King of heav - en, we will an - swer the call; we will fol - low, bring - ing hope to the world, filled with pas - sion, filled with pow - er to pro - claim sal - va - tion in Je - sus' name.'

How Do I Connect at All Saints?

give us seven

Worship is the key to our life together. To get to know us better, we ask that you "Give Us Seven." Join us for seven Sundays over the course of a couple months. In doing so, you'll come to learn who we are and what we believe, and experience the mission to which God has called us: to proclaim the excellencies of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

meet with us

If you're interested in meeting with a pastor, we'd love to buy you coffee and get to know you. Getting to know long-time members is another great way to know about us, and to be known.

serve others

While worship is the heartbeat of our community, we know that to grow in the Christian faith you must experience the gospel in the context of the family of Christ, namely in a Community Group. We encourage everyone to join a Community Group, our primary means of connection and pastoral care, and get involved in a Ministry Team.

join the community

God builds his kingdom through his people. Your gifts, talents, and resources are needed at All Saints, not only to support what God is doing in our church, but also to spread the message of the gospel throughout our city.

NOTE: To receive periodic emails about the church community, announcements, and upcoming events, please contact Pastor Phil at phunter@allsaintspca.org or the church office at office@allsaintspca.org.
