

BIO on Brian Barron, Senior Manager for the Construction Health and Safety Program, within the Occupational Health and Safety Branch at the Ministry of Labour, Training and Skills Development.

Brian has been in the construction industry for 28 years and has worked in most areas of construction, from residential to ICI to roads and bridges.

For the last 15 years he worked for the Ministry of Labour, Training and Skills Development.

Brian started as a Construction Health and Safety Inspector in Toronto, then moved on to become the Regional Program Coordinator for the Western Region based out of the Hamilton office.

From there he took on various project management roles, including the underground economy project, and finally on to the role of Senior Manager for the Construction Health and Safety Program.