Instructor – Wayne Newell

For over 35 years Wayne served in senior financial leadership roles and worked with companies in Canada, the United States and the Caribbean. His experiences and expertise, shared with many companies, has helped owners, managers, employees and businesses grow. In doing so, he has amassed a library of knowledge on what makes a successful contracting company.

In the past eighteen years he has presented his exclusive Construction Management Courses to over 3,400 construction professionals from St. John's to Victoria. He was awarded his Certified Management Accountant (CMA now CPA) designation in 1972.
