

BIO on Michael Langlois is a Licensed Industrial Woodworker.

In 2005 he became a Health and Safety professional for one of the largest employers in the Niagara Region.

In 2009 he completed the Occupational Health and Safety Certificate program from Ryerson University, and received the Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP) designation.

In 2010 he received his Certified Ergonomic Specialist (CES) designation. In 2012 he completed the Osgoode Hall Law School Certificate of Workplace Health and Safety Law.

In 2014 he received his Certified Health and Safety Consultant (CHSC) designation from the Canadian Society of Safety Engineering and opened his health and safety training company called Langlois Safety Training and Consulting Services. In 2016 completed the Osgoode Hall Law School Certificate of Workplace Mental Health Law. Michael is currently completing my Diploma of Occupational Health and Safety from University of New Brunswick.

Langlois Safety Training and Consulting Services are Chief Prevention Officer approved training provider for Working at Heights (WAH), Joint Health and Safety Committee (JHSC) Part 1, JHSC Part 2 and JHSC Refresher. They have a training facility in St. Catharines with where we offer WAH, JHSC, EWP (both scissor and boom which we have at our facility), Confined Space, Confined Space Rescue, Self-Contained Breathing Apparatus, Telehandler, Forklift, WHMIS and much more.