

Endorsed by FSA FOREST SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

FOREST SCHOOL TEACHER TRAINING

Led by UK-based Under the Hazels and in partnership with Maine Early Childhood Outdoors

9 Day
In-Person
Outdoor Training

JULY 20-29, 2026

WALDOBORO, MAINE

Followed by 7.5 hours of mandatory live online content, 110 hours of self-study and 6 week pilot program.
Total training: 96 guided learning hours, 180 total learning hours

Level 3 Accredited Forest School Leader Certificate

This qualification is designed to develop leadership, facilitation, and practical skills to enable learners to understand the principles and ethos of Forest School. This course will fully prepare learners with the knowledge and skills to plan and lead outdoor preschool, nature and play-based programs and Forest School programs for children and adults in a variety of settings.

Who should consider this training:

This training and is suitable for school and college staff, teachers and teaching assistants, early childhood educators, youth workers, after-school leaders, and anyone interested in being outside with children.

Small class size of 15-20 students

Cost: $2000 plus food and lodging on your own

MORE INFORMATION & REGISTRATION:

MAINEECO.ORG/FOREST-SCHOOL OR

wildrootsnaturallearning@gmail.com

Find out more about: Under the Hazels FSA MaineECO

Accredited by ITC First & recognized by the Forest School Association

in partnership with maine early childhood outdoors

ALL THE SKILLS YOU NEED TO SUPPORT HOLISTIC PLAY AND LEARNING OUTDOORS