Establishing Trauma-Informed Care Practices in the Early Childhood and School Age Classroom Early Care and Education providers work with diverse groups of students from all walks of life. Statistics show that 26% percent of children living in America will experience some sort of trauma in their life prior to the age of four. This course will introduce the concept of trauma in the lives of young children and focus on ways to incorporate trauma informed practices into the environment and interactions with children.	HACC York Campus September 5, 2017 6:00-9:00 pm	$14.00
A Sensory Fear Factor: An Autism Awareness Experience The presentation is an opportunity for you to begin to understand how a child with an Autism Spectrum Disorder may experience the world around them. Through sensory activities we will explore what children with autism might experience on a daily basis. We will also discuss the importance of the teacher-parent relationship.	YWCA York September 18, 2017 6:15-9:15 pm	$14.00
Creating a Mindful Early Learning and School Age Program By attending this interactive session, participants will develop an understanding of their role in supporting mindfulness practices in the early childhood and out of school environments. Participants will explore the need for these calming and reflective approaches when working with young children. Join us to discover ways to plan for mindfulness throughout each day and arrange the classroom to support this approach.	HACC York Campus September 19, 2017 6:00-9:00 pm	$14.00
A Parent's Perspective: Autism from Suspicion to Services This event is an in-depth look at what parents go through from the time they suspect their child may have autism, through the diagnosis process, and finally the never-ending phase of acquiring services and support for their child. This workshop will help you understand the process so that you can be supportive of the families who experience it.	YWCA York September 25, 2017 6:15-9:15 pm	$14.00
