- HBG Rights Catalog listing with your book description, cover image and details shared with publishers worldwide in print and electronically
- Your title presented on the Frankfurt Rights platform, Frankfurter Buchmesse's portal for the rights community, and online HBG collection
- A report with information on those inquiring about a title and for suppliers offering useful services in the field.
- Contact and Follow up with interested publishers
- Agenting & negotiation services available

HBG specializes in bringing authors to the world. Be next!

"Deanna Leah is one of the hardest working agents in the rights industry today. She makes it a point to be very knowledgeable about all the books and authors she represents. She has fought for her clients to get the highest advances and royalties from the purchasing publisher. Her calendar is full with appointments all day long. It has been an honor and a privilege to work side by side with her."
